

edifice

Old Home Magazine

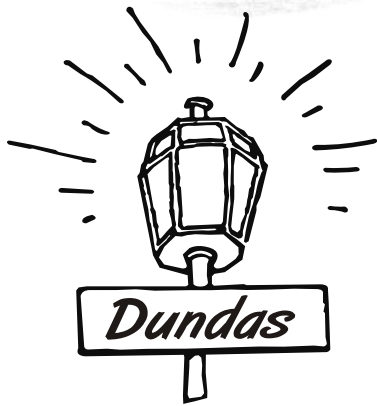

March 25, 2006

we are

Bringing restoration to your main street.

Restoration Workshop

Date: Saturday, March 25, 2006
10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Venue: Dundas Historical Museum
139 Park Street West
Dundas, Ontario

Aims:

A 5-hour Workshop On The Proper Methods And Execution Of Repairs And Maintenance Of A Century Home Inside & Out.

Exterior:

Repair And Maintenance Of Heritage Roofing. Damp Problems And The Solution. Repair And Maintenance Of Masonry And Wood Siding. Repair And Maintenance Of Original Wood Windows. Gingerbread And Millwork Replication And Repair. The Exterior Paint Palette, With Complete Paint Restoration Techniques. Caulking 101.

Interior:

Removing Your Old Trim For Refinishing, The Right-Way. Repairing Cracked Or Failed Plaster Walls And Ceilings. Flooring, To Strip Or Not To Strip? The Century Home And The Modern Kitchen And Bath.

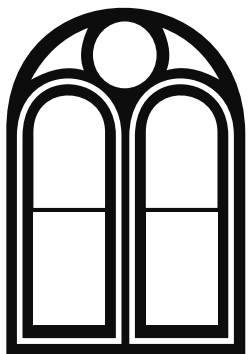

Designed For: A Workshop For The Home Owner And Conservator.

Speaker:

Christopher Cooper, Editor-in-Chief Of Edifice Magazine With 22 Years Experience In The Restoration Of Century Buildings World Wide.

Materials & Fees:

A Workbook Will Be Supplied, Registration Fee $75.00

Register Today

519-757-1299

Tickets Are Available
At The Dundas Historical Museum
139 Park Street West, Dundas ON
Telephone: 905-627-7412

Detailed Information On This And Other Workshops Can Be Found On The Edifice Magazine Web Site Including Registration Forms

www.oldhome.ca